1. That AC no. 63 Durg-Rural should be renamed as Anda because out of its total population, major portion belongs to Anda R.I. circle.
2. That AC no. 84 Bhanpuri (ST) should be renamed as Narayanpur (ST) as Narayanpur a headquarter of Police district is and already announced district headquarter whereas Bhanpuri is not even a Tehsil headquarter.
3. That AC no. 79 Antagarh (ST) should be renamed as Antagarh-Pakhanjur (ST) as both are Tehsil headquarter.
4. AC no. 4 Premnagar should be renamed as Premnagar-Surajpur because Surajpur is Tehsil headquater and major center whereas Premnagar is already existed assembly.

That the aforesaid proposals may be allowed.

Sub:- Dissenting Proposals with regard to Assembly Constituencies (AC's) u/s 9(2) of the Delimitation Act 2002.

Res. Sirs,

I have received the delimitation proposals formulated by the Commission with regard to PC's as well as AC's. I am giving my comments and dissenting proposals separately for PC's and AC's. That in my opinion, the proposals with regard to seven PCs namely Sarguja (ST), Jashpur (ST), Janjgir-Korba, Bilaspur, Rajnandgaon, Durg & Bastar are acceptable and remaining four PC's namely Kanker, Raipur, Mahasamund and Raigarh (SC) requires some changes. That I am giving my dissenting proposals and justification with regard to aforesaid four PC's. That I have done this in such a manner that the reservation status as proposed by the Commission remains unchanged, thus making it amply clear that my suggestions/dissenting proposals are actually supported by the parameters of the Commission itself.

That, in view of the guidelines framed by the Commission in which parameters like administrative unit, accessibility, geographical compactness and uniform distribution of the population are the major criteria, the proposal of delimiting PC's has some discrepancies which I would like to highlight alongwith my dissenting proposals.

1. That since Chhattisgarh has 16 administrative district of which some are very small and some are very big and with the fact that every PC should have 8 AC's, hence it is possible that no PC should extend to more than 3 district. Whereas in the Commission's proposal, Raigarh PC and Kanker PC has been proposed out of 4 districts. This will make the process of election, counting and declaration much difficult. So keeping the above fact in mind my proposal limit every PC to three district of less.

2. That the Commission itself mandated, that only up to 10% deviation is allowed with regard to average population of any PC. In the Commission's proposal, Kanker PC has population of 21,18,294 i.e. 11.84% more than the average 18,93,982. This has happened because of inclusion of 9th AC in Kanker PC. It is easy to recall that in the deliberation with the Commission, I along with other associate members have requested that 9th AC should be included in those two PC's which has densier population so that the Geographical Sprawl may not be on higher side. Kanker PC is also thinly populated area, hence it is wiser to limit it to 8 AC only and 9th AC should be included in Raipur PC. My enclosed proposal has done it in accordance of every parameter.

3. That it was also discussed that as far as possible if any district has more than 8 AC then its PC should not extend to more district. In the proposal of Commission, Raipur PC has been proposed out of 3 district where as it could be limited to less, very easily.

4. That the Mahasamund PC in the Commission proposal has been proposed in such a way that it is spread to around 300 KM, which is unnecessary. Moreover two AC's of Mahasamund district has been included in Raigarh PC, making it a PC spread into 4 districts. Though it looks compact in the appearance in the map, however one major geographical feature has not been considered. Barnawapara forest sanctuary and hills forms the natural boundry on the northern side of Mahasamund district. The entire area of Mahasamund district is connected towards Mahasamund by N.H.-6 rather with Raigarh area. Hence it is appropriate to keep all the AC's of Mahasamund district into Mahasamund PC. It will also limit Raigarh PC to 3 disctrict and more accessible.

5. Following are the proposals :- u/s 9(2) of the Act

Unchanged PC's :- 1. Sarguja (ST), 2.Jashpur (ST), 4. Janjgir-Korba, 5. Bilaspur, 8. Durg, 9. Rajnandgaon, 10. Bastar (ST) – as proposed by the Commission.

PC's with change :- 3. Raigarh (SC), 6. Mahasamund, 7. Raipur, 11-Kanker should be delimited in following manner.

Dissenting Proposal u/s 9(2) of the Delimitation Act*PARLIAMENTARY CONSTITUENCY AS PROPOSED BY MAHENDRA KARMA, ASSOCIATE MEMBER TO THE COMMISSION

Note :- In my proposal, minimum required changes have been made to the formation already existed, hence Sarangarh PC re-emerges. Every PC's population is within the accepted range and 9 AC's have been given to Raipur PC as it has dense population compare to thinly populated Bastar. This formation makes all PC's as geographically compact, easily accessible, administratively easier to handle in election process and also in accordance to the sentiments to the public.

Sub :- Dissenting Proposal in connection with Delimitation of constituencies of Chhattisgarh.

Ref. :- Your Letter No. 282/CGH/2005-Vol.II/dated 25th Oct. 2005.

In the above subjected matter the draft proposals as sent by the Commission regarding division of the state in to assembly and parliamentary constituencies on the basis of 2001 census data the entitlement of seats for each district shown in paper-1 page-1 is not in accordance with the methodology for allocation of assembly constituencies to the districts and delimitation of assembly constituencies. As per methodology for allocation of assembly constituencies to the districts the total population of that district should be divided by the average population per constituencies and entitlement of a district on the basis of such state average contains a fraction, the fraction more than one half shall be counted as one and fraction less than one-half shall be ignored. In the draft proposals sent by the commission paper-1 page-1, entitlement of seats for Korla and Kabirdham districts are as follows:-

Name of District	Entitlement of Seats
Korla	- 2.53 3
Kabirdham	- 2.53 2

Though having same fraction the entitlement of seats in the above 2 districts is different. Korla is entitled for 3 seats and Kabirdham is entitled for 2 seats. Hence I dissent the entitlement of assembly seats to Kabirdham district proposed by the commission and propose that Kabirdham district is also entitled for 3 seats with the name Virendra Nagar, Kawardha and Pandariya as per fraction.

I also suggest that as Lormi Pandariya was earlier one constituency, this status can be maintained now also and remaining Kabirdham district can be divided into two parts namely Kawardha and Virendra Nagar as it was earlier.

As per draft proposals, population of one assembly constituencies in Kabirdham district is 3,06,156 whereas average population of assembly constituencies in the state is 2,31,487 only and hence to rationalize the population of assembly constituencies in Kabirdham district, Pandariya may be joined with Lormi to form one constituency as earlier.

Thanking you,

Subject: Regarding delimitation of Pal Assembly Constituency.

In the proposed delimitation of Chhattisgarh assembly constituency Sl. No. 5 Surguja district (ST) Wadarafnagar Tahsil is reserved and joined in the Pratappur assembly constituency. Doing this will not be justified keeping in view the geographical point of view that is, transportation, rivers and situation of hills of the areas with major population of tribes. Therefore, keeping Pal assembly constituency as before which includes Ramchandrapur and Wadarafnagar Tahsil, should be kept as it is in the present proposal and Balram R.I.Circle should be removed from this.

Sir, therefore, you are requested to publish this in original keeping in mind the comprehensive interest of the public.

To,

Honorable Chairman,
Delimitation Commission,
Nirvachan Sadan, New Delhi.

Subject: Reservation of Bilaspur Lok Sabha Constituency NO. 5 for Scheduled Caste(SC).

Under the subject is is stated that presently the Parliamentary Constituency No. 5 of Bilaspur of Chhattisgarh State is reserved for scheduled Caste.

In the delimitation proposal the Bilaspur Parliamentary Constituency No. 5 in shown as a General seat. Removing reservation from Bilaspur Parliamentary Constituency the Raigarh Lok Sabha Constituency No. 3 is being reserved for Scheduled Caste, which is not justifiable. My suggestion is as below:-

1. In proposed Raigarh Lok Sabha Constituency No. 3 four(04) districts with majority of scheduled caste is included in Assembly Constituencies and from the said Assembly Constituencies three Sarngarh(SC) No. 17(SC, Saraipali(SC) No. 39, Bilaigarh(SC), 43(SC) have majority of Scheduled caste the population are included Population of the said Parliamentary Constituency:-

Total Population	Scheduled Caste	Scheduled Tribes
1912986	359175-18-78%	377256-19.72%

Present Bilaspur District Parliamentary Constituency which was reserved for scheduled caste is shown as General category. In which 9(Nine) Assembly Constituencies are in total-

	Total Population	Scheduled Caste	Scheduled Tribe
Bilaspur District	1998355	369088-18.47%	397104-19.87%

The population of Assembly Constituency of one district total Raigarh Lok Sabha Constituency No. 3 including 04(Four) District as Raigarh district, Janjgir-Chamba District Mahasamund District, Raipur District the population is

	Total Population	Scheduled Caste
Bilaspur District Lok Sabha	1998355	369088-18.47%
Raigarh District Lok Sabha	1912986	359175-18.78%

Therefore Lok Sabha constituency No. 3 has difference of 050.31% SC population over Bilaspur and Bilaspur Lok Sabha has 9913 more population then Raigarh No. 3 of one district only.

The Commission has given information in the document, published in the gazatte that there is an obligatory provision to make the Lok Sabha and Assembly seats reserved for scheduled caste according to the population of high percentage.

Raigarh Lok Sabha constituency no. 3 has been made reserved on the basis of the high percentage (0.31%), after the assimilation of the four districts in this Lok Sabha constituency. It should not be reserved where Bilaspur Lok Sabha Constituency is comprised of only one district.

The population of Bilaspur Lok Sabha Constituency is 9913, which is more than that of Raigarh Lok Sabha which is comprised of 4 districts. So Bilaspur Lok Sabha Constituency no. 5 should be made reserved for the scheduled caste.

3. The Jarhagaon Assembly in Bilaspur district which is reserved for scheduled caste, is desolved, which is not justifiable.

4. Therefore you are requested that Bilaspur Lok Sabha constituency No. 05 should remain(as it is) reserved for scheduled caste.

Yours faithfully,

Sir,

It is requested that Jarhagaon Legislative Assembly Constituency which is reserved as SC at present included in Bilaspur Parliamentary Constituency, has been abolished & Jarhagaon R.I. Circle has been included in Mungeli Legislative Assembly Constituency and Pathria R.I. Circle has been included in Bilha Legislative Assembly Constituency which is wrong.
